

What does your happy place look like? Draw and colour what it looks like. Put it next to your bed and next time you feel sad or worried, look at it and remember the happy times.