33rd Sunday In Ordinary Time

Sunday Reflection

Luke was writing his gospel after the devastation of Jerusalem by the Roman armies in 70 AD, and the way he frames the words of Jesus suggests that he had witnessed the devastation. Massive blocks of stone, thrown down from the walls, are still lying there as they fell, scattered at the base of the Temple. The message of this passage is, then, the same as Paul's in today's second reading: the end is sure, but is not yet. Jesus prepares his followers for what is to come before the cataclysmic finale. He warns against false Messiahs, political leaders or other saviour-figures who claim to 'put the world to rights'. His followers will be continually challenged to give an account of their beliefs, harassed and martyred in every age, betrayed by those they thought their friends. There is a promise that Jesus will provide the words and wisdom for Christians to make a reply to their persecutors; there is a promise too of protection from real harm - but there is no promise that it will be a quiet and easy life. A constant theme in Luke's Good News is that the followers of Jesus must follow him in his difficulties and trials. Only with like endurance will they stay true to him and keep in his footsteps. Reflection: Recall an occasion when the Lord gave you wisdom beyond your own.

Dom Henry Wansbrough OSB

This weekend Rachel Buckley from Aid to the Church in Need will be here to give a short appeal talk on the plight of our persecuted fellow Christians around the globe. She will be selling religious items at the back of church after Mass.

Envelopes for St Patrick's can be given to Mary Pugh, and Mount Carmel envelopes can be placed in the box at the back of church by the Piety stall.

OLMC Repository Room: We are looking for volunteers men and women to help clean up, and refurbish the room at the back of church to enable it to be used in the future. At the moment it is a wasted space that could be put to better use. If you are willing to help please speak with Fr Silviu. Monetary donations towards cost of materials etc would also welcome. Thanks.

Good News.....we have caught up with modern technology! If you would like to pay by card for mass intentions, mass cards, or just make a donation this is now an option. Donations can also be made by scanning the QR Code on the posters in church and on the newsletters.

We have had a number of generous donations over the past couple of weeks and would like to express our thanks for your generosity.

Liverpool Archdiocese Warm and Cosy Centres: Our parish Centre is taking part in this initiative.

Every Wednesday between 1-3.30pm we will be opening our doors to anyone (non specific age group) who wants to come along and find a safe and warm space. There will be free tea, coffee and biscuits, access to TV and Wi-Fi and plenty of friendly company. Everyone welcome.

OLMC: Altar Servers Training: Sessions will be once a month on the 1st Sunday after the 11.15am Mass. Each session will last around 30 minutes. Any enquiries please see Alison.

Mass Attendance Sheets: The attendance sheets at the back of church are for all parents to sign each week to enable us to keep records for future reference for any faith forms etc that we may be asked to fill in. These forms will give us an accurate record of attendance and will be kept for a minimum of 3 years.
